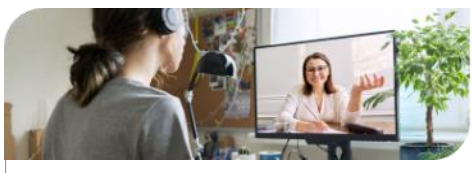
Where to go if you feel unwell

Your local guide to virtual and in-person urgent and same-day care

Primary Care Provider

If you or a family member are unwell, please call your primary care provider (family doctor or nurse practitioner) to schedule an appointment. If they are unavailable or you do not have a primary care provider, please try one of the following options below.



Virtual Care Options

Virtual care uses digital tools to help you connect with health care providers online or by phone, for convenient access to the best care when and where you need it.

Virtual Urgent Care Clinic

The Central Region Virtual Urgent Care Clinic provides adult and pediatric patients with timely access to virtual care with a nurse practitioner for urgent non-life threatening conditions.

Appointments required, to book visit: regional-virtual-urgent-care.ca

Health 811
